Brave Americans Drive Foe Back

Southern California Hit By Temblor

2 ARE KILLED AND PROPERTY DESTROYED BY HEAVY QUAKE

LOS ANGELES, April 22.—Two persons are dead and the business sections of San Jacinto and Hemet, two mountain towns, forty-five miles northeast of Riverside, are a tangled mass of ruins today from the earthquake that shook all of Southern California yesterday afternoon. The loss in the mountain towns is $600,000.

The damage in Los Angeles was comparatively slight.

The dead are Frank E. Darnell, retired cigar manufacturer of Boston, who was crushed in a panic on the municipal pier at Santa Monica, near here, and August Carlson, retired farmer of Astoria, Ore., who died in this city of shock.

The first tremor of the quake struck San Jacinto and Hemet at 3:30 p. m. Heavy clouds of dust obscured the mountains, and it was at first believed an old crater had renewed activities. A violent quake followed immediately with a roar of crashing walls and swirling clouds of dust from the business districts. Forty one-story and two-story brick and adobe business buildings in the two towns were leveled. The frame residences withstood the shock better, and the fact that the business districts were practically deserted during Sunday was the reason for no loss of life there. Several persons were injured from falling brick and timber. The towns were without light during the night, and all water mains were destroyed by the quake.

EL CERRITO YOUTH SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS

Leon D. Cage, a native of California and 22 years of age died at his home in El Cerrito yesterday and the body will be shipped this evening on the 4:15 Southern Pacific train by Undertaker Bert Curry to Bakersfield for interment.

Deceased leaves a mother, Mrs. Eleanor Cage and a sister, Mrs. Irvin Sutton, both of El Cerrito, to mourn his loss.

ELKS TO STAGE BALL GAME FOR THE LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER

Manager Otto Deitrich, of the Richmond Elks announces that he has arranged with the baseball team of the Letterman Hospital at the Presidio for a ball game in this city next Sunday afternoon for the benefit of the Red Cross. The hospital boys have a good team and they are coming to Richmond on Sunday with the avowed determination to carry home the antlers of the Elks hanging to their girdles, or wherever baseball teams carry their trophies.

The line-up of the teams as reported by Manager Deitrich is as follows: Letterman Hospitals—Killilay, Crespi, Dutch Ruther, Galloway, Maisal, Goodwin, Gay, Torkelson, Kasey and Kline. Elks—Autry, McDonough, Hollis, Freine, Heister, Rogers, Vargas, Menges, Maas, Ward and Pfyl.

The entire proceeds of the game will be given to the local Red Cross chapter and there should be a record turnout to see the local boys in action in the first game of the season.

FOE'S CLAIM OF 185 PRISONERS NOT BELIEVED

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The War Department today was without and details of the battle of Seicheprey, where the Americans were attacked by picked German shock troops. The German claim of 183 prisoners and 25 machine guns is not believed here.

The Americans outfought the Germans at every point, as was admitted by the official statement issued in Berlin on Sunday night. This stated that the German storming troops "returned to their lines of departure during the night." The French war office stated that the assault failed and that the allied lines had been completely re-established.

NIGHT RIDERS, MASKED AND GOWNED WITH DEATH HEADS, APPEAR IN RICHMOND

People who are lax in their duties toward the United States government in this city and vicinity in the way of doing their share toward carrying on the war, had better stir themselves along the proper channels in the future. The night riders are abroad with the avowed intention, it is understood, of compelling everybody to do their duty in the way of buying government bonds and in other ways helping along the war work.

Hooded, masked and gowned men with skull and cross-bones emblazoned on their breasts to the number of fifty appears on the streets of Richmond Saturday evening between 9 and 10 o'clock, riding not on horseback, as in the days of yore, but in highpowered automobiles. They talked to no one, but appeared on the streets suddenly, riding from one end of Macdonald avenue to the other, then returned and as suddenly disappeared in the darkness.

Effigies bearing placards were carried in each automobile.

The first dummy was labeled: "He was a pro-German."

The second: "He was an Alien Slacker."

The third: "He didn't Buy a Liberty Bond."

The fourth: "He Doesn't Belong to the Red Cross."

Rumors of an organization of this character have been whispered about the streets for the past month or more, but the first evidence of its actual existance was

REAL ESTATERS AND PRINTERS TO PLAY BALL FOR RED CROSS

Rumor has it that a baseball game will take place at the ball park in the near future between the Real Estate men and Printers of Richmond, for the benefit of the Red Cross. This should create considerable amusement and attract a large crowd of spectators. There are a good number of "has beens" among the Real Estate fraternity, and the Printers claim to have some old cripples in their organization that can go some yet when limbered up.

It is understood that the notorious Bill Devereaux is an old time printer and will take the type stickers in charge and put them in shape for the game.

Further details will be announced when arrangements are made.

Saturday evening. They are said to be the outgrowth of the great patriotic demonstration here something like a month ago when the Community War Council was organized, but whether they have anything to do with that organization is not known. It is said the avowed intention of the riders is to see that everybody does his patriotic duty, and it is hinted that the membership embraces many of the most substantial citizens of the community.

Organizations of a similar nature are said to exist in various parts of the country and others are rapidly being brought together to counteract pro-German influences and to promote war work. It is said they only act where flagrant instances of sedition and disloyalty are encountered.

Efforts to ascertain the identity of the individuals participating in the parade Saturday night have been without results.

STRIKE MOVE IS BRANDED AS TREASON BY SENATOR

WASHINGTON, April 22. — A movement by Seattle, Wash., labor leaders to call a general strike May 1 as a protest against alleged persecution of Thomas Mooney and others convicted of the bomb conspiracy at San Francisco was reported to the Senate today by Senator Poindexter of Washington, who denounced it in vehement terms as "blackmail" upon the government, sedition and treason.

Senator Poindexter submitted a letter from Secretary James A. Duncan of the Seattle Central Labor Union, saying a referendum on the strike was being circulated. He also presented a resolution of Seattle trades unions declaring a "widespread suspicion" exists among the workmen that the bomb plot convictions were an attempt to discredit organized labor.

LEADERS DENOUNCED.

The movement, Senator Poindexter declared, is in harmony with the Industrial Workers of the World, Bolsheviki and other international unrest. Repudiating and denouncing leaders of the movement as not friends of labor, Senator Poindexter said:

The writers of this threat to hold up the government, to cut off supplies from those heroes who stand between us and the German horror, should be visited not only with the just indignation of an outraged public, but with the punishment prescribed for blackmail, disloyalty, sedition and treason. It is an act of conspiracy to foment sedition and insurrection both by peaceful and violent means.

It is moral treason—the act itself being worse than death, an unspeakable crime—is deserving of the extreme penalty of death. The threat to commit it is a crime against the state and the government. These men should be arrested and dealt with as disloyal traitors.

Senator Poindexter also referred to the government commission headed by Secretary of Labor Wilson, which recently investigated labor unrest on the Pacific coast and referred to the Mooney case as one of the causes.

CENSOR IS HELD FOR ROBBING LETTERS

Corporal Wilbur L. Judd, 26, army censor at the ferry postoffice, was charged with the embezzlement and theft from letters of sums believed to aggregate more than $10,000 in a warrant sworn to today before United States Commissioner Francis Krull by W. I. Madeira, city postal inspector, and Inspector Thomas J. Flavin. Judd was arrested Saturday night by military authorities for a minor offense. Drafts and checks amounting to $7086 were found in his possession. He made a complete confession, according to Madeira. Judd's home is in Cincinnati. He is in the Presidio guardhouse.

HUNS THRUST FROM GROUND GAINED BY U. S. BOYS

American troops on the sector northwest of Toul have driven the enemy from the positions he gained Saturday and have restored the situation completely. The American main positions held out against the enemy, but he occupied advance elements, from which he was ejected Sunday in a counter attack. To the east the French lines also have been re-established.

Indications are that the Germans intended to separate the American and French troops, and, perhaps, wipe out the American sector. General Pershing's men, however, fought desperately and only retired from Seicheprey before overwhelming numbers. The enemy was not able to hold the village and soon evacuated it.

After the Americans had driven the Germans from the occupied advanced posts, the enemy did not attack again and Sunday was comparatively quiet east of St. Mihiel. The German offensive, which persisted throughout the day and into the night, was preceded by most violent artillery fire, but the Americans stuck to their guns and trenches to meet the enemy storming troops. Two German airplanes were brought down by American machine gunners.

AWAITING THE NEXT BLOW.

While awaiting the next German blow, now momentarily expected, Field Marshal Haig is taking advantage of the comparative lull to strengthen his lines.

But north and south of the Somme and on the Lys battle front the British positions were improved in local operations last night. Similarly, the Germans made an attempt to pust forward their lines in the Mesnil region north of Albert, in which sector they apparently are preparing for some more important movement. The British foiled the enemy effort.

Heavy artillery fire is in progress on so many parts of the front that little indication is afforded by this as to the point selected by the Germans for their renewed thrust. Naturally they may be expected to make further efforts to extricate themselves from the pocket into which they have forced themselves along the Lys southwest of Ypres. Thus, last night the enemy was reported shelling the British positions in Nieppe wood wherein lies the route to Hazebrouck, the railway center from which it is well nigh vital for the British to hold him.

NEW THRUST THREATENS.

There has been no development in the region north of Ypres.

The situation in the Somme region is being for the moment even more closely watched than that along the Franco-Belgian border to the north. Field Marshal Haig reports heavy shelling of the British lines on both sides of the Somme and the enemy, and the correspondents are sending word of German preparations for a movement of some nature between Arras and Amiens, within which the region under bombardment is located.

The enemy is known to have brought up some of the heaviest guns to the Somme battlefield, where Amiens is the objective. Last night the French repulsed a German raid along the Avre, in this region.

PARIS, April 22.—The Germans tried to raid a French trench position east of the Avre River in the Thennes sector, but were repulsed. The French war office announced today. The French captured seven prisoners. East of Rheims the Germans attempted three surprise attacks, but all broke down. The

TO WHICH PARTY DO YOU BELONG?

To which do you belong?

Are you among the blood-lust crowd that wreaks its wrath on women and babies? Or are you with and for those who are for progress, prosperity and protection for the women and the weak?

Surely you are for those God loves. You love children. You are ready to fight for the honor of your women; for the protection of your "old folks at home."

You did not want to fight.

You told the kaiser you did not want to fight. But he made you, and now you will! You're darned right, you will fight! Not for a day. Not for a week, nor a year. But NOW and until the day of the scientific murdered, thug, body-snatcher is gone by. Until the day when men and women and little children can walk the earth in peace and safety. Until despoilers of women and well-poisoners, gas-dispensers and four-gang throat cutters are gone forever!

Fight? Well, I should say you will fight! Until every shipyard in three thousand miles of coast line is putting freight and fighting vessels into the water. Until every factory is fitted to capacity to turn out fighting materials as fast as used. Until every sturdy shoulder is supporting and every eye sighting a gun in the ranks of sure-shot soldiers steadily winning the world war.

Fight? Great guns, how you will fight! They said you could not fight—you were not trained. But you CAN fight. You've never been licked and no nation is now going to do the trick—even if it is full of tricks and trickery.

Fight? Well, it's going to be your meat until "earth is once more a decent place in which to live."

EMPERORING IS A RASCALLY BUSINESS

Too bad that France hadn't old "Tiger" Clemenceau as premier a year ago. Substantiating his Rooseveltian declarations, "Czernin lied," Clemenceau now causes publication of a letter of March 31, 1917, from Emperor Charles of Austria in which the latter plainly bids for peace, with restoration of Alsace-Lorraine and rehabilitation of Belgium and Serbia as inducements.

A year ago, Hindenburg was behind his line, Russia wasn't innocuous, Germany was having serious industrial "unrest" and Austria was groaning with political and other sorts of colic. Publication, at that time, of an offer by Charles to throw down Bill Hohenzollern would certainly have caused the Teutonic autocracy awful intestinal distress, but the French powers treated the matter as strictly confidential. Publication at this date is, perhaps, a violation of confidence, but Clemenceau doesn't care a whoop for anything save biting Germany good and hard. The letter will not now have much effect, in all liklihood, but Emperor Charles thinks enough of it to hurry a denial over to his friend and master, Bill.

Emperoring seems to be a rascally sort of business. There was Nicholas Romanoff, fighting against Germany and secretly trying to sell out to her. And here's Charles, fighting with Germany and secretly willing to ditch her. Running a street car or a newspaper is pretty respectable, yet.

LOOK FOR THE TRUE VALUES

It is a false doctrine that the greatest existence should be one filled with sorrow and suffering. And that from this sort comes the finest fortitude.

An old legend tells how Christ once appeared as a Man of Sorrows to a Catholic Saint, and asked him what boon he would most desire. "Lord," was the reply, "that I might suffer most."

But this is an ideal that is being replaced, most happily, with the new ideal of happiness and service.

The smooth ordered life has come to be one of selection and acceptance.

Face the world as it is. When suffering and sorrow come, bear them with finesse. And when conflict comes, fight the fight of a sound man, knowing his objective.

There is one thing that was never meant in this world by the one who made it and put human beings into it to work and to play, and that is discord. There is nothing but harmony and smoothness in the running of a life.

Expect anything. But learn to eliminate. Learn to forget. Bury your illwill—and plant flower seeds upon its grave.

Establish yourself, at least, a smooth ordered life. With worlds of sunshine in it. And fragrance. And courage, no matter what your lot.

Look for values. And see the good in everything.

The new draft measure—to take the boys who have reached 21 since June 5, 1917, into the army—seems to be a wise measure. There is no reason why this should not be done, since we still need men for the army. We might as well make up our minds that we are going to have an army in this country, and in having it we might as well make up our minds that the young men must enter it. War is a young man's game, and will always be. Old men cannot stand the strain, and by old we do not mean the centenarians either.

"WHAT A JOY TO GET INTO THE SMART JERSEY DRESS BEULAH"

"Actually, I would have screamed if I had to wear that dull winter coat a day longer. And I couldn't have helped myself if it hadn't been for Cherry's. It's the only sensible way for folks on a salary to buy. Did you ever see a dress more clever than this one, or a hat more chic or a silk petticoat more alluring? Well, every one of them I bought at Cherry's on credit. Just paid a few dollars down and now I pay the rest off weekly as I earn. Stomach Trouble Cured

Oakland, Oct. 2, '17
My stomach was my master for many years. I am a clerk in the office of the lumber department of the S. P. Co., and after every meal I had an annoying, grating sensation, together with an empty feeling in my stomach. Through lack of nourishment my health was broken and I was in a hospital for several weeks. The doctors first cleaned me out with a stomach pump. Then they treated me for ulcers, and finally, as I did not improve, they observed my digestion through an X-ray. Concluding that they could do nothing for me they sent me home with the suggestion of an operation.
Then a fellow employee who had received a great benefit by drinking the FONG WAN CHINESE HERBS suggested that I try them. The first cup of tea brought me genuine relief, and after a few weeks I was entirely cured. I am back in the office and will be glad to give my personal testimony to any desiring it.

"HONEYMOON" IS NEW FILM PLAY AT RICHMOND

"The Honeymoon," starring Constance Talmadge, which will be shown at the Richmond Theater today and tomorrow is a delightful comedy of the type which this captivating comedienne is making her own. It is a merry tale of marital mishaps which points the moral to the newly-wed bridegroom: Never let anything break into your honeymoon."

Dick Greer, honeymooning at Niagara Falls with Susan Lane, his wife of a day, arouses her suspicions when she discovers him in the dressing room of Maisie who has entangled Philip, Susan's brother, who now wants to announce his engagement to Marion Starr. This escapade is a secret from Susan, and so she thinks the worst of Dick, flies into a tantrum and finally secures a divorce decree.

They are reconciled, of course, for each loves the other devotedly; but the unraveling of the entanglement furnishes scores of laughs. The divorced couple is remarried by a minister whom Dick providentially finds; and, amid smiles, he and Susan start on a second edition of "The Honeymoon."

AMBULANCE OF BYLLESBY MEN HIT BY SHELL

Manager C. M. Brewer, of the Western States Gas and Electric company of this city is in receipt of information that one of the ambulances furnished by the Byllesby employes to the American Field Service in France has been damaged by shell fire and put out of service. However, it is being repaired in a repair shop in Paris and will soon be as good as new.

A picture of the car, which is numbered 737, is sent to Manager Brewer. It has been operating in the vicinity of Hill 344, a particularly dangerous sector. It was during one of the frequent engagements there that the accident to the car happened. One of the 210 German shells landed near it and took off the hood and a greater part of the engine. Fortunately, however, there was nobody in the car at the time and no loss of life resulted.

These cars are maintained by the employes of the Byllesby company and have been doing excellent work along the battle front.

SCINTILLATING BILL ORPHEUM THIS WEEK

There is a something about Geo. Damerel; a psychic aura of optimism, or something of the kind that is felt rather than defined, that has endeared him to American playgoers. From the day that he dawned on the horizon of theatrical fame as "Prince Danilo" in "The Merry Widow," he has been famous throughout the land and in demand by hundreds of managers; and this week at the Oakland Orpheum, one may readily see why and how George Damerel in "The Little Liar," a wonderful new musical farce by Will M. Hough, famous among authors of famous comedies, is the quintessence of excellence in vaudeville. The piece is colorful, original and attractive, and Myrtle Vail and Edward Hume, co-stars with the famous headliner, are clever artists. Hence, a big headliner.

Ethel Corley, noted legitimate actress, Verna Pelton, Jean Haig and company offer "The Answer," Miss Corley's latest playlet. It is a dramatic incident with an intense heart appeal; a veritable gem among vaudeville sketches, cut clear as a cameo, and superbly acted.

Haruko Onuki, the Japanese prima donna, and the world's greatest "Butterfly" holds audiences in a spell of her magic voice. Loney Haskell, "That Rascal," the renowned vaudeville monologue comedian, holds them in a spell too, but this one is a different kind of a spell, for he is good for a laugh a second. Bert Wheeler and Tom Moran offer more laughs, and the Tasma Trio of daring aerialists, Harry De Coe; "The Man with the Tables and chairs," a Pathe weekly and a Christie Comedy are among other features.

Oakland is going to look into the future and into the realm of psychic mystery soon;—for Leona La Mar "The Girl with a Thousand Eyes," and the most baffling mental mystery of the ages, is coming soon. Miss La Mar absolutely proves that she reads men's thoughts She finds missing articles. She detects mysterious enemies. Her powers are superhuman. She is the one recognized mystic of America.

PAT O'BRIEN IS LECTURING IN THE EAST

Pat O'Brien, late Lieutenant in the British Royal Flying Squadron when he was captured in the course of duty by the Germans and subsequently made his escape into Holland and then to England is making his mark on the lecture platform in the East, from all accounts.

Before going to war with a Canadian regiment, Pat resided in Richmond and helped shunt freight cars around in the Santa Fe yards, with Bert Rockwood playing engineer to his fireman job. When the row started over in Europe Pat decided that here was an opportunity to see some fun and he made his way to Canada where he enlisted. He became identified with the Royal Flying Squadron and it was not long before he became proficient as a birdman after landing in Europe.

He has shot down dozens of Boche machines, but at last on the 17th of August his turn came and he was shot down by a German aviator after a hard-fought battle. He was wounded in the fall from the skies and was on his way to a German detention camp when he decided that he would rather take a chance on losing his life than be a prisoner in the hands of the Germans. So he leaped from the train and hiding by day and traveling by night, after seventy-two days he made his way into Holland, thence to England and finally home to the United States.

Pat has been a very busy boy since he came back to God's country. He has written a book of his adventures as an aviator for the British government and now he is lecturing throughout the Eastern States. It is said he makes a good talk and crowded houses greet him wherever he goes.

Eddie Dearborn is in England, according to a letter received this morning from that young man by his father, Secretary I. J. Dearborn, of the Merchants Association. He made the journey overseas without mishap or incident and never missed a meal enroute, which is to say that he was not seasick.

According to Eddie's letter he hears nothing of what is going on at the front, but the roar of the big guns can be plainly heard in his camp in England. The men are training hard every day and he ends his epistle by saying that England is a very beautiful country and he has seen many interesting things since leaving Richmond.

Picardy front the artillery was active.

LONDON, April 22.—British positions on both the Picardy and Flanders battlefronts were improved during the night. The war office reported today that the British had strengthened their lines in the sectors of Villers-Bretonneux (east of Amiens), Albert and Robecq. Early in the night the Germans delivered attacks in the section of Mesnil, and after sharp fighting forced their way into advanced British positions. Successful British raids were carried out at points north and south of Lens. Capture of prisoners and machine guns was reported. The artillery was active along the Somme river.

The Germans are preparing for fresh attacks on both the Flanders and Picardy fronts. Men have been massed and guns have been moved up for a resumption of the assaults.

The allied positions have been strengthened all along the line, and the outcome of the forthcoming fighting is awaited with the utmost confidence.

The operations on Sunday were confined to local enterprises. In the sector of Robecq (5½ miles northwest of the British railhead positions of Bethune) Field Marshal Haig's forces delivered an attack which threw the Germans out of their advanced positions. German artillery has been active in that area and the British positions have been violently shelled.

Are your kidneys living out?

Back feels lame and achy?

Passages painful or too frequent?

Hard water is hard on the kidneys.

Alkaline water is especially bad.

Give the kidneys help.

Help to overcome the effects of bad water.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills.

You can depend on Doan's, Richmond people recommend them.

Read this Richmond woman's experience.

Mrs. O. F. Barley, 612 Eighth St., says: "I think poor drinking water weakened my kidneys and caused kidney trouble. I had pains in the small of my back and at night, I was restless and could hardly sleep. I was very nervous and became easily upset. I had headaches and dizzy spells, when everything seemed in a blur. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and one box, procured at the La Moine Drug Co. cured me."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Barley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.
